On Friday evening, February 8th, the following people will be presented to Bishop Barnes at the Rite of Election, signifying an important step in their journey to full participation within our faith community. The candidates are already baptized in another Christian denomination and will be making a Profession of Faith with reception of First Eucharist and Confirmation while the Catechumens will be Baptized and then receive First Eucharist and Confirmation. Please pray for them; write them a note of encouragement and welcome as they prepare to be received into the Church. Mail your card c/o the parish or place them in the Offertory Basket.

Candidates: Johnnie, Janette, Sara, Kari, Donna, Christine, Shawn, Carrie, Rebecca.

Catechumens: Victor, David, Daniel, Rafael, Dakota, Laura, Jasmine, Jennifer, Selena.

The Fellowship Dinner Group

Newcomers as well as current parish members are welcome for our Spring Gatherings. The object is to meet new Catholic friends and to welcome new members to our Catholic communities. You host one dinner, for 6 people, and you go to two dinners, February thru April; one dinner each month. In May we all get together for a grand potluck. Call Marie Travers— 652-5974 or Joanne Ostertag 325-8875 for further details

Sanctity of Human Life

The alms collected on Ash Wednesday, February 6, will go towards Pro Life Catholic Ministries. Our diocesan Pro Life Ministries assist our youth in leading lives of health and holiness, assist expectant mothers-fathers & babies, as well as offering healing for those suffering from the pain of abortion. The alms we give stand against the culture of sin and death.
