The Challenge of Forming Conscience for Faithful Citizenship

U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops

#70 The family is the basic cell of human society. The role, responsibilities, and needs of families should be central national priorities. Marriage must be defined, recognized and protected as a lifelong commitment between a man and a woman, and as the source of the next generation and the protective haven for children. Policies on taxes, work, divorce, immigration, and welfare should help families stay together and should reward responsibility and sacrifice for children. www.catholic.org. A Note from the Pastoral Coordinator

We have been praying with the Little Red Book for three weeks now. The stories of the saints and our catholic heritage is inspirational. Our lives are also meant to be inspirational for others. The joy and meaning that came from the lives of saints was found in only one way; by their giving back to the Lord what He asks of them. I hope your prayer time has caused you to pause, to reconsider how to live your faith with a more generous heart. If something is hindering you, trust that Jesus will take care of it. As your generosity grows you too will discover the same personal and spiritual benefits as the saints. Your pride in our catholic identify will grow as others, young and mature are able to experience the Lord in their lives through your support of parish ministries. Joyce Frichtel

All Souls Day

Sunday November 2

It is a blessed thing to pray for the dead, those who can no longer pray for themselves. In praying for those who have gone before us in faith, and in teaching each generation to do the same, there will always be people on earth praying for souls between earth's and heaven's gates.

Kindly bring pictures of your deceased loved ones to the office the last week of October between the hours of 8 am to 4 pm. Your pictures will be placed around the sanctuary on All Souls Day and held in prayer at all the Masses.
