The Challenge of Forming Conscience for Faithful Citizenship

Over the summer, this section will be dedicated to a brief summary of the U.S. Bishop's reflection

Forming Conscience for Faithful Citizenship. The complete version is available free at www.faithfulcitizenship.org.

Our nation faces political challenges that demand urgent moral choices. We are a nation at war, with all its human costs; a country often divided by race and ethnicity; a nation of immigrants struggling with immigration. We are an affluent society where too many live in poverty; part of a global community confronting terrorism and facing urgent threats to our environment; a culture built on families, where some now question the values of marriage and family life. We pride ourselves on supporting human rights, but we fail even to protect the fundamental right to life, especially for unborn children.

We bishops seek to help Catholics form their consciences in accordance with the truth, so they can make sound moral choices in addressing these challenges. We do not tell Catholics how to vote. The responsibility to make political choices rests with each person and his or her properly formed conscience.

No Eucharistic Adoration Friday, July 4th

Readings for the week June 29 2008

Monday: Am 2:6-10,13-16/Mt 8:18-22
 Tuesday: Am 3:1-8;4:11-12/Mt 8:23-27
 Wednesday: Am 5:14-15,21-24/Mt 8:28-34
 Thursday: Eph 2:19-22/Jn 20:24-29
 Friday: Am 8:4-6,9-12/Mt 9:9-13
 Saturday: Am 9:11-15/Mt 9:14-17
 Next Sunday: Zec 9:9-10/Rom 8:9:11-13/Mt 11:25-30
Both the first reading and the Gospel today speak of hospitality and welcome. Our ministers of hospitality are a most visible example of using one's time and talents to welcome the people of God. But the Gospel assures us that all who give even just "a cup of coldwater" to one of His lowliest ones will be rewarded.
