The Challenge

of Forming Conscience for Faithful Citizenship

Who in the Church should participate in political life?

In the Catholic Tradition, responsible citizenship is a virtue, and participation in political life is a moral obligation. As Catholics, we should be guided by our moral convictions rather than attachment to a political party or interest group. Catholics need to act on the Church's moral principals and become involved: running for office, working within parties, communicating concerns to elected officials. Even those who cannot vote should raise their voices on matters that affect their lives and the common good. *The complete version is available free at www.faithfulcitizenship.org. - Comfortable with communal prayer
- Willing to serve through prayerful study, reflection and interaction with other council members for the common good of the parish
- Able to work well as a team member

Please pray for the new council members the Spirit is calling to serve for the mission and ministry of the Church.
