A Walk Through the Mass on The Year of the Priest

*"Without a priest
there's no Eucharist*

What is the Mass? A good way to describe the Mass is to say that it is Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday made present today in ritual. The basic shape of the Mass, even when viewed as sacrifice, is that of a meal. On our walk through the Mass we will follow ritual acts of 1) Gathering, 2) Story telling, 3) Meal sharing and 4) Commissioning.

Part four: Commissioning

Announcements. Finally we prepare to go back to that world in which we will live for the coming week. The burdens we have laid down at the door of the church for this Eucharist, we know we must now bear again - but now strengthened by this Eucharist and this community. There may be announcements at this time which remind us of important activities coming up in the parish. The priest again says "The Lord be with you" - the ritual phrase serves now as farewell.

Blessing and dismissal. We bow our heads to receive a blessing. As the priest names the Trinity Father, Son and Holy Spirit - we make the sign of the cross. The priest or deacon then dismisses the assembly: "Go in peace..." and we give our liturgical "yes" by saying "Thanks be to God."

Living the Eucharist in the world. We leave the assembly and the church building - but we carry something with us. A newly married couple leave their wedding ceremony but carry their marriage with them. The same is true of the Eucharist. What happens in our lives during the week gives deeper meaning to the ritual actions we have celebrated at Mass. As we daily carry our brokenness for love of the crucified, we find ever deeper meaning in the broken bread. As we pour out our lives in love for the homeless and the alienated, we find meaning in the cup poured out. It is only in relation to our daily lives that the full meaning of the ritual actions of the Mass becomes clear to us. Catholic Update

The phrase in today's psalm, "May you see your children's children," is really a prayer for a long life. The good steward knows that every day is a gift from God, to be lived with joy and thanksgiving. "May the Lord bless us all the days of our lives!"
