

GRACE ABOUND

Most Gracious and Loving God, we give thanks that you abundantly bless us. We ask for continued financial blessing from debt and the burden of debt. Give us your wisdom that we may be good stewards over all that you have given us.

Based on 2009/2010 Budget Last Sunday's Collections:

The "Collection Counters" are requesting that you please use your envelopes.

Christmas Baskets 2009

Your gift brings hope

Do you know a family who would not have a Christmas without your help?

Please submit name, address and phone number of only the most in need to Norma in the parish office. Names will be collected only until November 6.

Ways you can help:

1. Take an ornament from the Giving Tree and bring the item unwrapped with the ornament before December 13
2. Bring gift certificates for youth from local stores or theaters.
3. Adopt a family
4. Holiday dinner; use only for the Poor envelope found in the Sunday Donation envelope or write Holiday Food on a blank envelope with your donation. Your dollars will be stretched to provide holiday food for the family
5. Help with setting up the Giving Tree. Those toys will be offered first for "shopping" by parishioners who need just a little help to provide gifts for their children. Then the families receiving baskets will be invited to "shop" for their children. If you would like to participate in this wonderful Christmas Spirit of giving call Parish Office 927-8544

Christmas in Summer

Thanks all who contributed, time, talent and/or treasure. We are a caring and loving Community, and it shows. The children thank you, I thank you, and God Bless. Dolores Gleghorn

The Year of the Priests

We give thanks for their presence in our sorrow

Book of the Dead

During the month of November, we pray for our deceased loved ones who have gone before us in faith. The Book of the Dead has a place of honor by the Resurrection statue. Everyone is invited to enter the names of loved ones who have died during the year. All the loved ones inscribed last year or in previous years remain also in our prayers this month. Parishioners who have died this past year include:

All Souls Day

It is a blessed thing to pray for the dead, those who can no longer pray for themselves. In praying for those who have gone before us in faith, and in teaching each generation to do the same, there will always be people on earth praying for souls between earth's and heaven's gates. Kindly bring pictures of your deceased loved ones to the office the last week of October between the hours of 8 am to 4 pm. Your pictures will be placed around the sanctuary on all Saints Day and All Souls Day and held in prayer at all the masses throughout November.

World Mission Sunday

October 17 & 18

Please give generously to help the priests, sisters and lay catechist that serve in far away places. Envelopes at the back of church.

Requesting

Kindly bring tooth brushes, tooth paste, bars of soap to the parish office. These items will be distributed to the homeless through Habitat for Humanity

Visitors of the Sick workshop

November 14, 2009

This workshop prepares extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion who bring the Eucharist to the sick and the shut-ins. This follows the rite of communion to the sick and the viaticum. For more information call 909-475-5338

Readings for the week October 18, 2009

Monday: Rom 4:20-25/Lk 1:69-75/Lk 12:13-21
 Tuesday: Rom 5:12,15,17-19,20-21/Lk 12:35-38
 Wednesday: Rom 6:12-18/Lk 12:39-48
 Thursday: Rom 6:19-23/Lk 12:49-53
 Friday: Rom 7:18-25/Lk 12:54-59
 Saturday: Rom 8:1-11/Lk 13:1-9

Good stewards must not argue about who is the most important. Today's Gospel says clearly that those who aspire to greatness must humbly serve the needs of all. Even Jesus came not to be served, but to serve.
