The Year of the Priest

"Without a priest

there's no Eucharist

This year, the diocese has ordained just two priests. In the 24 years since Serra house opened, it has contributed 45 priests to a diocese that stretches hundreds of miles from the cities of Riverside and San Bernardino through desert towns to the Arizona and Nevada borders.

The Diocese of San Bernardino was created in 1978 by Pope Paul VI, who carved it from the Diocese of San Diego. Back then, the new diocese had 76 active priests for 235,000 Catholics. Today, it has 91 for more than 1.2 million adherents.

Thank you, Dear Holy Spirit Church, thank you for your generous gift and your kind support for our Operation School Bell fundraiser. Because of you and others who donate, many young lives are touched, school clothes and supplies are given and good things are accomplished. With gratitude, The members of Las Madras Auxiliary
