A Walk Through the Mass on The Year of the Priest

*"Without a priest
there's no Eucharist*

What is the Mass? A good way to describe the Mass is to say that it is Holy Thursday, Good Friday and Easter Sunday made present today in ritual. The basic shape of the Mass, even when viewed as sacrifice, is that of a meal. On our walk through the Mass we will follow ritual acts of 1) Gathering, 2) Story telling, 3) Meal sharing and 4) Commissioning

Part two: Story Telling

At Mass, after the rites of gathering, we sit down and listen as readings from the Word of God are proclaimed, they are the stories of God's people

Three reading and a psalm. On Sundays there are three readings from the Bible. The first reading will be from the Hebrew Scriptures. We recall the origins of our covenant. It will relate to the Gospel selection and will give background and an insight into the meaning of what Jesus will do in the Gospel. Then we will sing or recite a psalm. The second reading will usually be from one of the letters of Paul or another apostolic writing. The third reading will be taken from one of the four Gospels.

Standing for the Gospel. Because of the unique presence of Christ in the proclamation of the Gospel, it has long been the custom to stand in attentive reverence to hear these words. We believe that Christ "is present in his word. The priest will again greet us with "The Lord be with you. " He then introduces the gospel reading while marking a small cross on his forehead, lips and heart with his thumb while praying silently that God cleans his mind and his heart so that his lips may worthily proclaim the Gospel.

The gospel reading concludes with the ritual formula "This is the gospel of the Lord Jesus Christ," again proclaiming our faith in the presence of Christ in the word. Then we sit for the homily.

Homily: "Homily" (which replaced the word "sermon" for many) is a new word for Catholics. It is an act of worship rooted in the texts of the Mass and especially in the readings from Scripture which have just been proclaimed. The homily takes that word and brings it to our life situation today.

General intercessions: The Liturgy of the Word (our Story Telling part of the Mass) comes to and end with the General Intercessions. We pray that our assembly really come to look like the Body of Christ, a body at peace, with shelter for the homeless, healing for the sick, food for the hungry.

We pray for the Church, nations and their leaders, people in special need and the local needs of our parish. A minister will announce the petitions, and we are usually given an opportunity to pray for the intentions in our heart, making some common response aloud like "Lord, hear our prayer." (Continued next week)

Readings for the week September 13, 2009

Monday: Nm 21:4-9/Phil 2:6-11/Jn 3:13-17
 Tuesday: 1 Tm 3:1-13/Jn 19:25-27

 Saturday: 1 Tm 6:13-16/Lk 8:4-15

In the second reading today, St. James has harsh words for those who do not put their faith into action. May we be such good stewards of God's gifts to us that we can never be accused of having "faith that does nothing in practice."
